The course: a 10-mile loop consisting of 1/3 singletrack, 1/3 primitive fire road, and 1/3 gravel roads. Approximately 700 ft. of climbing per lap. Beginners do 1 lap, Sport riders 2 laps, and Pro/Elite/Expert riders 3 laps.

Where: 1 hour west of Portland in the Tillamook State Forest. See map below.

When: Pro/Elite/Expert 11:00am, everybody else after them! Registration closes at 10:30am.

Details: This race is part of the Oregon Off-Road Series. You need an OBRA membership to do this race. OBRA membership is $5 for a day, $15 for a full year mountain bike membership, or $20 for a full year road and mountain bike membership. Contact OBRA at their lovely website: www.obra.org. Entry Fees: $25 for Pro/Elite/Expert riders, and $20 for everybody else, EXCEPT our beloved juniors under 18. It'll cost them a mere 10 bucks. There is no pre-registration for this race. It's easier this way... believe us. There are no late fees.

Contact Info: If you have questions, contact Jon "The Mayor" Myers at (503) 234-9273, or jonemyers@yahoo.com. If you are desperate, you can stop by Sellwood Cycle Repair and speak with Erik "Wooly Mammoth" Tonkin. That address is 7639 SE Milwaukie Ave. Portland, OR 97202; (503) 233-9392; www.sellwoodcycle.com.

THANKS TO THE OREGON DEPT. OF FORESTRY & LONGVIEW FIBER FOR ALLOWING US TO USE THEIR LAND!!!
